

Teams

Gather friends well versed in investing and create teams

Setup

Choose a player to start as the describer for the first round

Describing Words

The describer tries to convey to their teammates without saying the actual word using descriptions

Scoring

If the team successfully guesses the word, they earn a point. If they skip the word - no points.

Winning

The game continues for 3 rounds, and the team with the most points at the end wins